

Training and Development Opportunity for the Safeguarding Champions

Train the trainer course in October 2017

Bexley Safeguarding Children Board in collaboration with Greenwich Safeguarding Children Board is running a Train the Trainer course in October 2017. We are opening up this opportunity to the Safeguarding Champions.

We have 7 places open for this course. The course will be delivered by an external trainer Ruth Dover, Tattersall Training. Participants are required to attend all 3 days.

The course will be free, however there will be an expectation that each trained trainer will co-deliver at least 3 sessions per financial year for Bexley Safeguarding Children Board.

Please see overleaf for the aims and learning outcomes for this opportunity.

To express interest or for further information, please contact Natasha Pavey, LSCB Coordinator – natasha.pavey@bexley.gov.uk or on 020 3045 4320. (This opportunity will also be publicised on the BSCB website and in the BSCB e-bulletin.)

Train the Trainer – Target audience and Learning outcomes

This opportunity is aimed at staff who will be delivering multi-agency safeguarding children training to staff working for the Bexley Safeguarding partner agencies.

This highly practical course will show you how to deliver motivational training courses with increased confidence and skill.

You will learn how to:

- Use a step-by-step framework for preparing courses
- Understand and apply different learning styles
- Identify and use a range of training methods
- Communicate clearly with appropriate body language to the range of people social workers train
- Maintain interest with interesting and stimulating images
- Prepare and co-deliver a 30 minute training session
