Update May 2019

London Borough of Bexley have commissioned Solace to be the new provider for domestic abuse services in the borough, to aid sustained recovery for survivors of abuse and their families.

Together they will deliver a specialist domestic abuse service that provides:

- safe and suitable refuge accommodation
- a One Stop Shop in Bexleyheath offering support and advice
- an Independent Domestic Violence Advocacy (IDVA) service for high risk cases
- an outreach service for medium risk cases and resilience building group programmes

It is their aim that all women, men and children affected by abuse are given the specialist support needed to build safer lives and stronger futures.

To find out more about their services in Bexley contact:
bexley.community@solacewomensaid.org or on 0203 1984 659; this is staffed Monday – Friday 9am-5pm (excluding Bank Holidays). Further details are set out below.
