

Vulnerable Adolescents and Pathways To Harm

Tuesday 20 November 2018

9.00am—3.30pm

*The Warren,
Metropolitan Police Sports Club
Hayes, Bromley.
BR2 7AL*

Keynote speakers:

- Noel Williams, ex gang member
- Dr Carlene Firmin MBE

The theme of this year's BSCB annual conference is Vulnerable Adolescents and Pathways to Harm. Noel Williams, ex-gang member, is now a Criminal Justice Consultant and Political Commentator. He will talk about his daily lived experience as a gang member and what interventions work for young people. Dr Carlene Firmin MBE is a Principal Research Fellow at the University of Bedfordshire, where she leads their Contextual Safeguarding and peer-on-peer abuse research programmes. Her theory of Contextual Safeguarding has informed policy and research agenda for advancing the protection of adolescents. There will be a training session delivered by Papyrus, a charity dedicated to the prevention of young suicide and an interactive workshop from Ineqe. You will also be given the opportunity to gain learning from recent Serious Case Reviews and hear from Bromley Youth Council.

Speakers continued:

- Jim Gamble, BSCB Independent Chair
  - Aarti Kumari, Papyrus
  - Bromley Youth Council
- + INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP—Safer Social Networking Activity Pack (SSNAP) led by Ineqe

Cost: £120 (including networking lunch)
For community and voluntary sector: £60

*Evaluations from last year's BSCB conference: "Thanks for a great and inspiring day."
"Speakers knew what they were talking about backing it up with personal experiences, notable studies and statistics." "Heartfelt and powerful."*

To secure your place, please complete and return the conference booking form
Closing date for applications is Tuesday 6th November 2018

Contact: Hazel Blackman Administrator/ Co-ordinator
hazel.blackman@bromley.gov.uk
T: 0208 461 7816
Website: www.bromleysafeguarding.org

